Law (General) Department,

Madras.

Sir,

The existing Panchayat Court at Tonse East in the Udipi Taluk of this District has jurisdiction over Tonse East, Baikadi and Uppur villages. The residents of Baikadi village complain that the inclusion of the village within the limits of the Tonse East Court is of no advantage to them, as the existence of two rivers, the Shivapura and the Swarnanadi between Baikadi and the Court, prevents them from going to Tonse East freely either for voting or for filing suits. The Sub Collector, Coondapoor who enquired into the matter reports that the grievance is real and suggests that Baikadi village may be excluded from the limits of the Tonse East Court. This will confine the jurisdiction of the Court to Tonse East and Uppur villages.

2. During the enquiry it has been found that the Court at Chantar in the Udipi Taluk comprising at present the six villages of Chantar, Handadi, Matpady, Kumragode, Varamballi and Haradi is unnecessarily extensive. The Sub Collector proposes to reduce its size by excluding Varamballi and Haradi from its jurisdiction. The Court at Chantar will then comprise only Chantar, Handadi, Matpadi and Kumragode villages.

3. The above proposals exclude the villages of Baikadi, Varamballi and Haradi from the jurisdiction of either Court. It is proposed to constitute a new Court at Varamballi comprising only these three villages which are contiguous to each other. A building free of rent is reported to be available at the place.

4. The proposals may be sanctioned with effect from 1st January 1928. The requisite notifications are enclosed.

Your obedient servant,

Collector.
